THE WEEK IN SOCIETY.

There was no perceptible lull in Newport cayeties last week, which from a social point of view was quite as lively as any other this summer. The week practically marked the height of the season from the number of persons in the city. It was the pecially noticeable. Most of the coungers had their homes well filled with guests, and the hotels and private boarding-houses were liberally patron-nized. Doubtless, the chief social incident of the week was the dinner dance given by Mrs. Potter Palmer in honor of her niece, Miss Julia Dent Grant, which was certainly one of the leading affairs of a season that has been marked by several especially elaborate entertainments, if it did not exceed all the others in buildancy, size and splendor. Compared with Mrs. Falmer's party at her villa, Arleign, the other entertainments of the week were rather plain, and yet there were a number which were worthy of special mention.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, had not until last Tuesday night been thrown open to a large dancing crowd. accommedate it an improvised ballroom was built on the lawn at the southerly side of the villa, connecting with the broad plazza. It was exquisitely adorned with flowers by Hodgson. A surprise awaited the guests, and the scene presented was one of such taste in floral art as to outrank perhaps any effort heretofore made in tone, with a style of decoration entirely new-of by the use of golden handle baskets with fluted rich green flumilies, all being caught up by the pink and white flowers all being caught up by the ribbons of the frieze tust above them. As a top finish just above the line of lights was an upper friezework of glossy green, so constructed as to permit a free circulation of air from outside. In the treatment of this detail no small follage could alone be used to give the proper effect, so long boughs of the Japanese magnolla with acacla were put up. Small panels at the side were filled in with rich tapestry framed by pillars and fringes of grisses and follage corresponding to and in harmony with the subject of the tapestry. At one end of the room musicians played in a fairyland of of the room musicians played in a fairyland of palms and delicately tinted light. Twelve round palms and delicately tinted light. Twelve round palms and delicately tinted light.

ferick D. Grant, Miss Grant, Potter Palmer, jr and Honore Palmer. Mrs. Palmer were a gown of gown of black satin and brocade, embroidered satin and tulle, rather noticeable for its The guests at the dinner included Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd S. Bryce, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Astor, Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Sloane, Perry Belmont, Mr. and Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, Mr. and Mrs. P. Lorillard Ronalds, jr., Mr. and Mrs. Cooper Hewitt, Mrs. Burke-Roche. and Mrs. H. Mortimer Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. James F. D. Lanier, Egerton L. Winthrop, Mrs. Stanley Mortimer, Mrs. Hermann Gelrichs, Mrs. Frederic Neilson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Kemp. and Mrs. W. Storrs Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Harper Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. Prescott Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Pendleton, Mrs. Charles Ruswadsworth Ritchle, Mrs. Calvin S. Brice, Miss Cushing, Thomas F. Cushing Mr. and Mrs. John Cadwallader, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. G. d'Hauteville, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Drevel, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Nott Potter, Miss Clapp, Miss Hoffman, Miss Clerk, Coral Randolph, Miss Blight, Miss Struthers, the Misses Potter, the Misses Murray, Miss King, Miss Dresser, Miss Edith Hall, Miss Clara Moss, Miss Fomeroy, Miss Rogers, Miss Josephine Brooks, Miss Barger, Miss Van Alen, Miss Davies, Reginald Brooks, Center Hitchcock, Milton S. Barger, Henry F. Eldridge, Franklin A. Plummer, Robert L. Gerry, Ralph N. Ellis, James J. Van Alen, Fernando Yanaga, James W. Gerard, Ir. Eugene Higgins, Reginald Ronalds, Grafton Cushing, Willing Spencer, Gordon Fellows, Edward H. Bulkley and Mr. and Mrs. J. De Forest Danielson. The cotillon after dinner was led by Worthington Whitchouse and Miss Grant, assisted by Honore Palmer and Mrs. James F. D. Lanjer. The favors were exceedingly pretty. They incuded floral wands, coroneits of flowers, rosette bands of crimson satin, ribbons, hats of all nationalities, watch and key charms, dancing sirie and silver ornaments. A number of additional guests came in for the dance. Most of the women appeared with powdered hair. Wadsworth Ritchle, Mrs. Calvin S. Brice, Miss.

the largest dinner parties of the season at her tottage, in Mills-st., in honor of Miss Van Alen, daughter of James J. Van Alen, and Miss Evelyn Bloane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sloane. About sixty guests attended the dinner, and later was contributed by the Anglo-American Quartet, the Misses Kleckhoefer, on mandolin, violin and plano, and by Mr. Burton, the tenor. The lawn was prettily illuminated, and was furnished with comfortable chairs. Some of the guests were Miss Evelyn Burden, Miss Gerry, Miss Davies, Miss Evelyn Burden, Miss Gerry, Miss Davies, Miss Dresser, Miss Rogers, Miss King, Miss Cushing, Miss Carroll, Mrs. Burke-Roche, Mrs. Harold Brown, Mrs. J. Fred Pierson, Mrs. Louis Quentin Jones, Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock, sr., Mrs. Yznaga, Mrs. John Sloane, Mrs. Elisha Diver, Jr., Roger Winthrop, Eugene Higgins, Robert L. Gerry, Louis Quentin Jones, Raiph N. Elis, R. R. Rogers, Jr., Willing Spencor, I. Townsend Burden, Jr., Marquis San Martino, Comte de Valprato and Dr. Russell Bellamy. was contributed by the Anglo-American Quartet,

Mrs. H. Mortimer Brooks's dinner dance on Friday evening at her villa was a delightful entertainment, which was enjoyed by nearly two hun dred guests. Most of them came in after dinner, about it o'clock, when the cotilion was begun, Grafton Cushing leading, with Miss Josephine Brooks. The favors were exceedingly handsome.

large luncheon by Mr. and Mrs. John Jacob Astor on board the Nourmahal; an afternoon reception, with music, by Mrs. Calvin S. Brice at her villa, Beaulieu, when Miss Eustls sang and Leo Stern Beaulieu, when Miss Edistis and and Leo Sero, the 'cellist, piayed; a reception, with music, by Miss Leary, and dinner parties by Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, who resurned to Europe with her daughter, Miss Gladys Vanderbilt, on Wednesday; Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Shoane, James J. Van Alen, Mrs. Wickliffe Yulee and Mrs. David King.

A pleasant incident on Tuesday was the picnic ven by Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs and her sister, Miss Fair, who have closed their villa and gone to San Francisco. Through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont the entertainment took place at Gray Craig. The thirty guesis were en-tertained by the Clover Banjo, Gultar and Vocal Club. General and Mrs. J. Fred Plerson gave a reception vesterday at their villa in honor of Miss. Susan Miles, whose entagement to their son, J. Fred Plerson, jr., was announced a short time ago. Mrs. C. N. Beach has cards out for a dinner tomorrow night, and Mrs. William F. Burden will entertain on Friday night next. Mr. Van Alen's country dance at Durfee's teahouse. In Portsmouth, which is set for September 18, will be a gay affair. The guests will be faken out on coaches, driven by members of the Coaching Club. Mrs. Ward McAllister is at the Carry cottage, and Mrs. Clement C. Moore has gone to Bar Harbor for a short visit. Club. General and Mrs. J. Fred Pierson gave a re-

A wedding at Newport in the season is certain receive more than passing notice, and that of Miss Edith Blight, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Atherton Blight and granddaughter of Richard S. Greenough, the sculptor, who has lived in Rome for some years, to William Page Thompson was no exception. The wedding took place in Ail Saints' Chapel at noon on Wednesday, and everybody of any social prominence in Newport was present. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Henry C. Potter, of this city, assisted by the Rev. Dr. George J. Magill, rector of Trinity Church, The chapel was handsomely though not profusely decked with flowers, and every seat was occupied long before the bride, accompanied by her father and her bridesmaids-Miss Alice Blight and Miss Evelyn Blight, sisters; Miss Marie Winthrop, Miss Edith Hall, Miss Gerry and Miss la Fair-appeared in the small vesti-The bride was on time, and in less than three minutes after the moon hour the procession had formed and was on its way to the chancel, headed by the ushers-George Work, Edward H. Bulkley, Richard Peters, George Batchellor, Joseph Stevens, R. Livingston Beeckman, Andrew Sage and Henry W. Carning. These young men were followed by the bridesmaids, wearing effective gowns of pale rose crêpe de chine, with satin, trimmed with lace insertion. Their hats were of white lace, ornamented with pink ostrich the Each carried a bouquet of pink roses. The tride, in her severely plain gown of white satin, levoid of any trimming save a single long spray of natural orange blossoms on the left corrage, walked with her father, and never did she look more radiantly beautiful. An unusually tall corone to orange blossoms held the tulle veil in place on the criffure, which was arranged high. She were no lewels, Her shower bouquet was of illes of the valley jessamine and orange blossoms. At the foot of the chancel steps the bridegroom, with his best man, his brother, Lewis S. Thompson, metale bride. There was no choral service, and the cremony as quickly but impressively performed. Soon the orbini party, relatives and intimate triends, to the number of seventy, were burrying slong Cottsge-st, to the home of the bride's partners, in Bellevine-ave,, where the weading breakfast was served. The bride gave her attendants oval brooches, set with large pearls, walls Mr. Thompson showered his bride with the most costly gifts, including a set of jewsis, consisting of diamond necklace, with pendant, there are also and earrings. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, who are spending the honeymoon at Brookdale Farm, foar and earrings. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, who are spending the honeymoon at Brookdale Farm, foar and earrings. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, who are spending the honeymoon at Brookdale Farm, foar and earrings. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, who are spending the honeymoon at Brookdale Farm, foar and earrings. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, who are spending the honeymoon at Brookdale Farm, foar and earrings. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, who are spending the honeymoon at Brookdale Farm, foar and earrings. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, who are spending the honeymoon at Brookdale Farm, foar and earrings. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, who are spending the honeymoon at Brookdale Farm, foar and earrings. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, who are spending the honeymoon at Brookdale Farm, foar and earrings of diamond recklace, with pendant, there are a ser will be that of Miss Nathalie Dresser, a daughter of the late G. W. Dresser, to John Nicholas Brown, which will take piace at noon on Wednesday next Church, and will be followed by a wedding breakfast and later by a reception at the home of the bride's aunt. Mrs. Edward King, in Bowery-st. Bishep Potter, assisted by the Rev. Dr. George J. Magill, rector of Trinity Church; the Rev. Dr. John Richards, rector of St. John's Church, Providence, and the Rev. Emory H. Porter, rector of Emanuel Church will efficiate. Miss Dresser will be unattended. Mr. Brown's best man will be Hoface Binney, of Paris, and the ushers will be Joseph Howland Hunt, of this city, J. De Forest Danielson and D. Berkerly Updyke, of Boston; Elisha Dyer, fr., and Howard Gardiner Cushing, of Newport, and Harold Flüggerald, of Brookdine.

Tuesday, September 14, is the date set for the marriage of Miss Lillian Francis, daughter of the late Dr. Samuel Ward Francis, of this city and Newport, to the Rev. William Osgood Pearson, of West Roxbury, Mass. Trinity Church, Newport, is of Miss Louis Douglass Eldridge, daughter of Mrs. J. H. Eldridge, of Ochre Point, Newport, to Morris Rutgers Barnewall, of this city. The cere be the efficienting elergement. Miss Eldridge, whose engagement was announced only a few weeks any will be attended by her sister. Miss Grace Eldridge Mr. Barnewall's best man will se all strather, Alex ander Van Reusselner Harnewall.

and shadows on the Berkenire Hills than Mrs. Hoffman, was the guest of honor as con given by Mrs. Shattuck on Frinay afternoon at her villa. Brookburst. The other guests were Mrs. John Sleane. Mrs. George Griswold Haven. Mrs. Charles Lanier. Mrs. George Griswold Haven. Mrs. Charles Lanier. Mrs. Myles Standish, Mrs. Anson Phelps Stoke. Mrs. Robert Chapin, Mrs. Richard S. Dana, Miss Anna Shaw. Mrs. Morris K. Jesup and Miss Clementine Furnies. Mr. and Mrs. Anson Phelps Stokes, who always dispense the most liberal horgitality, opened their mammont place. Shadow Bro'k, on Lake Mah. Reenac, last night, for the first large and elaborate entertainment of the Lenox season. It was a dispersion of the most liberal most of the Lenox season. It was a dispersion of the most interesting outdoor sport witnessed at Lenox in years. As yet rothing seems to be decided with regard to the wedding of Miss Louisa Shaw Burlew daughter of General Francis Barlow, to Pierre Jay, eldest son of Mrs. Peter Augustus Jay. Miss. Barlow has been passing the summer in the Berkshires with her mother, and it was said some time ago that the wedding would be relebrated in Trinago that the weddin

The marriage of Miss Katherine Corbin, daughter of Colonel Corbin, Adjutant-General of the Department of the East. United States Army, to William Usher Parsons, of this city, which will be celebrated in the chapel of St. Cornelius, on Governor's Island, on Tuesday afternoon, will be a pretty affair. ceremony are being seated a string quartet will play selections from several operas, and later will. play the bridal music from "Lobengrin" and the intermezzo from Mascagni's "Cavalleria Rosticana." The bridal party will walk from the house to the chapel. It will be led by ten young girls in white gowns-Miss Kittredge, Miss Lewellyn Parto the chape. It will be led by ten young girls in white gowns-Miss Kittredge, Miss Lewellyn Parsons, Miss Edith Williams, of Detredt; Miss Mismine, of this city; Miss Stoddard, of New-Haven; Miss Seccomb, of Washington; Miss Greeley, of Poston; Miss Mies, of Washington; Miss McElroy, of Pachester, and Miss Hunkins, of Chicago, Miss Hertha Phillips, of Chicago, Mils Her hand of honor, and Miss Parsons and Miss Charlotte Parsons, Miss Abigail Parsons and Miss Louise Parsons, Miss Abigail Parsons and Miss Louise Parsons, Miss Abigail Parsons and Miss Louise Parsons, Miss with pink in the december of the bridegroom, will be the bridesmaids. They will be dressed alike in gowns of white organize and lace, with pink inhons and white hets with pink trimmings. Each will carry a bouquet of pink carnations. The bride, who will walk with her father, will wear a gown of white organize and a veil of tuile, fastened with orange blossoms. Mr. Parsons has chosen his brother, Henry Parsons, to be his best man. The ushers will be the bride's brother, Eutherford Hayes Corbin, Joseph Parsons, Dr. J. Bently Squier and C. E. Milmine. A reception, for which a number of invitations have been issued, will follow at the home of Colonel Corbin, on the Island. Supper wil be served on the lawn, and there will be music by the Governor's Island Hand. Mr. and Mrs. Parsons, after a few weeks, will make their home at Irvington.

Several engagements of interest to fashionable society were announced last week. From Albany came the news of the engagement of Miss Alice Townsend Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Townsend Martin, of that city, to Benjamin B. Me-Alpin, son of ex-Adjutant-General Edwin A. Me-Alpin, of Sing Sing. The wedding will be celebrated Alpin, of Sing Sing.

In November, probably in All Saints' Cathedra,
Albany, Miss Martin is a niece of Bradley Martin, Albany. Miss Martin is a niece of Bradley Martin, who is a native of Albany and fived in that city until about thirty years ago. Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Rachael B. Cameron, daughter of ex-Senator Donald Cameron, to Chandler Hale, son of Senator Eugene Hae, of Ellsworth. Me. The wedding will take place in Harrisburg. Penn, in the last week in September. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fernald, of Chicago, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss. Lynne H. Fernald, to Sanger W. Pullman, son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Pullman, Mr. Pullman is a twin brother of George M. Pullman, fr. who is soon to marry Miss Felicia Oglesby, daughter of ex-Governor Richard J. Oglesby. The engagement was also announced last week of Miss Gertrade Walsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Walsh, of Dogan.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Grace E. Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Warren, to Frederick L. Pierson. The ceremony will take place on Wednesday evening. Septemony win take place on wednesday evening.

September 15, at the home of the bride's parents, in West One-hundred-and-twenty-seventh-st. The bridesmaids will be Miss Mabel White, Miss Jennie Long and Miss Alice Baker. The bridegroom's brother, Henry M. Pierson, will be best man. There will be a reception after the ceremony.

The murriage of Miss Louise Gunst to Joseph A. MacDermott will take place on Wednesday, Octoher 6, in the Church of the Holy Rosary, East one-hundred-and-ninetenth-st. The rector of the church the Rev. Dr. Francis II. Wall, assisted the Rev. Edward Tierney and the Rev. P. Minoque, will officiate at the ceremony.

Wednesday, November 10, will be that of Miss Mary H. Norton, daughter of the late Eckstein Norton, who was prominent in the railroad world, to Henry who was prominent in the Indicast world, to Henry E. Loney, son of William A. Loney, of this city. It will be solemnized in St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church, Clifton. The reception will be held at the home of the bride's mother, at St. George. The ushers will be Gustave Heineken, Charles Simmerly Mrs. Ella Sterling Cummins, will sail for London on September 11.

Tuexdo, which is receiving back some of the cot tagers who passed August at the seashore, will have a bit of excitement in a short time, when the big open golf tournament arranged by the Tuxedo Golf Club begins. The date set for the opening is Wednesday, September 2.

home, in Tuxedo Park, yesterday afternoon by introducing Miss Katharine E. Oliver, the Scottish impersonator, in a dramatic recital. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Lorillard, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mortimer, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Breese Smith, Mrs. and the Misses Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Pyne, Mr. and Mrs. George Gris-wold, Mrs. Schuyler Van Rensselaer, Miss Gris-wold, Mrs. Charles H. Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Fred-erick de Peyster Foster, Mr. and Mrs. James Brown Lord and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Seton.

BROOKLYN'S MEMORIAL HOSPITAL.

ENCOURAGING AND INTERESTING NEWS CONCERNING THE WORK AND PROGRESS.

The ninth annual report of the Memorial Hospital for Wemen and Children, Classon and St. Mark's aves. Brooklyn, contains encouraging and interesting news concerning the work and progress of ian, who calls at the home of the patient to spital, both well nourished and cared for while where it would yield the greatest good to th greatest number could not do better than accompany the resident doctor of Memorial Dispensary

An excellent department of the hospital is the Memorial Training School for Nurses, now entering upon the ninth year of its history. Nineteen nurses have taken the complete course, and this year the clars is larger than ever. The school uld have been much larger had the accommoda-

the Rochester Homospathic Hospital, was placed in charge as superintendent of the school, and staff, and Miss Irene H. Ovington, secretary of the Nursest School, says:

a day. Hravely our nurses go o knowing well that the lack of cleanliness, or even the facilities for it, greatly increases the risk of con-tagion. In one instance, after four days' constant nursing of two mother ess children with diphtheria, the nurse contracted the disease and for six months was unable to resume her duties in the hospital.

One of our nurses spent three weeks in a place where the father was dissipated and the mother very perform the ceremony. The altar will be decked low with typhold fever. She ck aned out the filth of the rooms, called in a neighbor to wash and scrub. simple dishes, and was rewarded by the gratitude her life had been saved.

"We were happy in being able to spare a nurse for over a week to care for a sick man in the Old girl who from overstudy in the High School became a victim to hysterical mania. One of our nurses was with her ten days in the crowded tenement-house, and so grateful were the parents for this blessing that they sent, in the girl's name, $5 to our treasury. Later, when another attack came on, she was brought to our hospital, and after a few months' stay went home well and happy."

The trustees of the Memorial Hospital hold lots opposite their building which afford an ideal location for a nurses' home. Here the girls could have a change of air and scene, and enjoy social life, with no sick people to be disturbed by it. It is hoped that this arrangement, which has proved advan-

that this arrangement, which has proved advantageous in other hospitals, will be granted them.

In addition to the instruction given the nurses by the superintendent in classes and at the bedside, the students attend semi-weekly lectures by the members of the hospital staff and the resident hospital physician. Dr. Helen West. The nurses also gain valuable experience by assisting in the dispensary. In speaking of the need of more room in order to enlarge the capacity of the training school, Miss Ovington says:

WARDS FOR CONTAGIOUS DISEASES.

That we may be able to accommodate more surses, we feel the necessity for the completion of south wing. Moreover, the much-needed conthe south wing. Moreover, the much-needed con-tagious ward will be located there. Now when our nurses contract any infectious disease, we are obliged to send them to the Kingston Avenue Hos-pital. There they receive good care and have many comforts, but they cannot have homocopathic treat-ment. Through the generosity of Dr. Hobby, two rooms in our hospital are being fitted up where nurses can be isolated after exposure to contagion and where suspicious cases may be quarantined.

OFFICERS ALL WOMEN.

All the officers, directors and managers of the Memortal Hospital for Women and Children are wom-en, and their devotion to the institution and their unceasing interest in its work and progress have resuited in a prosperous and prominent public philan-thropy that is recognized by the whole city of thropy that is recognized by the whole city of Brooklyn. The officers of the Board of Managers are as follows: President, Mrs. J. H. Burtis, No. 21 Quincy-st., first vice-president, Mrs. S. A. Jarus; third vice-president, Mrs. Calvin E. Hull; recording sec-retary, Mrs. A. M. Mirrieless; corresponding secre-tary, Mrs. A. H. Tift, No. 20 Kingston-ave.; treas-urer, Mrs. 4. C. Martin, No. 194 Berkeley Place; treasurer of building fund, Mrs. J. H. Burtis.

INTERESTING FACTS.

The oyster is one of the strongest creatures on earth. The force required to open an oyster is more than nine hundred times its weight.

Beamur says that each thread of what we call a "spider web" is composed of about five thousand separate fibres, and that it would take 27,648 full-grown spiders a year to spin a pound of such silk.

The summer coat of the polar fox is dark, in general harmony with the ground of the rocky Arctic eral harmony with the ground of the rocky Arctic regions, where the sun has melted off the snow. In winter it is so white that it can hardly be seen as it runs over the snow.

Godalming, Surrey, England, has a remarkable black and white cat, which, after being taken to Leeds by railroad, returned to its former home on foot, taking six weeks to make the journey of over two hundred miles.—(Boston Budget.

NEW ERA COOKING SCHOOL.

IT FOLLOWS THE DIETETIC DISCUS-SIONS WITH PRACTICAL HINTS FOR HOUSEWIVES.

RECIPES FROM ITS COOKERY BOOK, "THE VITAL QUESTION"-SAVORY DISHES FOR EACH MEAL, AND HOW TO PREPARE THEM.

The subjoined communication and its accompanying recipes will explain themselves, but the writer whose investigations in the field of dietetics have led to the recent interesting discussions in the understanding of the letter it is but just to the readers of the paper to vouchsafe the information that Mrs. Harriet A. Higbee, who holds the responsible office of Superintendent of the New Era ooking School, is known and acknowledged among those who have had the privilege of passing pracjudgment upon her professional work as a veritable "cordon bleu," Not only is she fully acquainted with all the mysteries of the chemical properties of the various foods that go to make up the perfectly rounded, symmetrical man or woman but she is a past mistress in the combinations of delectable flavors, and has the eye and hand of artist in the graceful arrangement and skilful blending of colors, which in these days go so far to render the modern dinner table a coruscation of both art and applied science.

of both art and applied science.

"To The New-York Tribune.
"So much interest has been aroused by the recent articles on cookery and 'matural foods,' published in your columns, wherein this school has been cited as an example of the most advanced thoucht in these directions, that we have determined, in response to an urgent request from the writer of these articles, to lay before your readers come of our tried and proved recipes.
"It will be noticed in these recipes the food staple, shredded wheat, is made a primary essential, and it is with the intention of bringing the dulerty possibilities of the food to the attention of ... us keepers that the New Era Cooking School ventur's into your columns.

ers that the New Era Cooking School veryour columns.

'The Tribune has, in its earlier articles, fully proven that this food is, of all foods, best adapted for sustaining humanity in its fullest physical and mental perfection, and now it seems but reasonable that this school should demonstrate how, practically, to so prepare the food that the utmost requirements of the palate shall be satisfied, and that with the least possible trouble to the housewife.

readers of the Tribune upon receipt of indexed will addresses.
"The following recipes, intelligently followed, will at once make converts of the most skeptical. Respectfully. Mrs. HARRIET A HIGHED, spectfully. Superintendent."

1. Biscuit with Milk or Cream, Served Warm,-Hold the biscuit between thumb and second finger and, with bottom side down, dip it quickly in milk, then hold it perpendicularly until the milk

65, Mushrooms in Shredded Wheat Biscuit Baster, one tablespoon chopped carrot, one pint milk, one-half one rolled Shredded Wheat Biscutt crumbs, two-thirds our sugar, three eggs.

half teaspoon mustard, one-fourth teaspoon said, one-half teaspoon paptica, three-fourths cup milk, one-Shredded Wheat Biscutt, one-half cup grated cheese iOld English or Wercester County, three-egs, Melt the butter, in it blend the flour sifted together with the mustard, said and paptica. Add the milk a little at a time, and when it begins to thicken add the Shredded Wheat Biscutt relied and sifted, and the grated cheese. Remove from the one spring, earning from 36 to 8 per day. Lyon now, at the age of eighty-four years, she refers with considerable pride to the time when she was young and strong enough to pitch logs in farnous Kettle Creek.

A WOMAN WHO SHOT WOLVES.

REMARKABLE EXPERIENCES OF MRS AN-DREASON, WIDOW OF THE MAN WHO MANAGED THE AFFAIRS OF

OLE BULL'S COLONY. From The Philadelphia Press.

Mrs. Andreason is said to have been a handsome woman. Even now, though her face is wrinkled and her hair turned gray, one sees traces of former heauty. She was yet quite a young woman when Cle Bull's colony of Norwegians came into Potter County and took up the twelve-thousand-acre tract. She then had been a widow for two years. She was employed as a cook at the Norwegian head-quarters, and it was there that she met and married Henry Andreason, who came into that country to manage the affairs of the Ole Bull colony. But Mrs. Andreason was not in love with the colonists. She says they danced and carried on too high for her. Many a time, she declares, the Norwegians would dance all night, to the time of a squeaky fiddle, instead of resting for their little farms.

But Mrs. Andreason's most exciting time of life was the first years of her residence in Potter County. Then deer were as plentiful as lambs in a meadow; elk inhabited the region in morsier droves; panthers prowled in every ravine, and wolves in ravenous droves made the night indeous with a chorus of monotonous howls. Mrs. French has was the case them was an expert rife shot, and has slain scores of black bear, catamounts and deer. But wolves were her specialty, for the bounty on these animals was large enough to make their hunting profitable. Mrs. French was once delayed on a homeward journey, and darkness overtook her. She was travelling a footpath leading from Kettle Creek to her home, when she heard wolves approaching. She concluded that they were on her trail, and, strapping her rifle to her back, she climbed a hemiock tree, knowing that if she could but get a dozen feet above ground she would be safe from the wolves sharp teeth and claws. In less than ten minutes the pack of her bome, and taken refuge. She could set the from been work she found

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES.

There are upward of twelve thousand young people's societies within the Canadian Presbyterian Church, with a membership of over thirty thousand.

WORK OF TRAINED NURSES.

A DAY'S DUTY IN THE HENRY-ST. SETTLE-MENT-COOKING-LESSONS A COM-MON TASK.

The work of a trained nurse in the Nurses' Settlement, in Henry-st., is constant and la-borious. Requests for her services come from hospitals, physicians, churches, from people who live in the tenements and from dispensaries, schools and various societies. She usually begins her work at 8 o'clock in the morning, paying her first professional visit to th patient who needs her most. She takes the temper-ature of the sufferer, gives a bath, tidles up the hed and the room and prepares whatever nourishment the physician has prescribed. While she does all thise, she tells some member of the family how to care for the patient while she is away, giving careful instructions for the comfort and welfare of the one who needs every attention, it may be, in

She leaves written directions for administering medicines and the proper amount of food, stating at what intervals it is best to give each. Then she goes to the next patient, and if it happens to be a its sufferings, provided, of course, the little ons is not too ill. Maybe she takes a doll or a picturebook to the child, watching its eyes brighten and its face grow happier at sight of the toy. Much of the best work of the nurse lies in teaching and training members of a patient's family how to care properly for the invalid. This is a noble and necessary work, and requires skill, pa-Cooking-lessons are a daily part of her instructience and tact.

Cooking-lessons are a daily part of her instruction, for the poor families to whom she is called must be taught how to make nourishing, clean dishes for the sick one, since pure food, properly cooked, has much to do toward restoring health and strength.

In many cases where the patients are poor, the nurse lends various appliances or gives them outright, otherwise the patient would suffer doubly from lack of the proper sickroom utensils. Such articles are headrests, blankets, nightgowns, sheets, sterilizers, syringes, atomizers, bedpans, toys, picture-books and doils.

A trained nurse should, to begin with, be of a cheery, sympathetic nature. A touch of sympathy is a wondrous help and tonic to the poor patients who possibly receive little or none from their relatives and friends, and a bright smile and a cheerful voice are positive blessings and inspirations in a sickroom.

The great and invaluable lesson of cleanliness must be taught, and taught as much in the spotless garb of the nurse as in her other ways of instruction. She must be deft and quick and steady, for a patient's life often depends upon the nurse's ability to see and respond to an emergency. In fact, the life of a nurse in a nurses' settlement is one of the busicat possible, and a vast amount of responsibility underlies it all.

HOW TO LIVE LONG.

SIMPLE FOOD AND STEADY HABITS THE SECRET OF LONGEVITY.

Old Parr, it is said, died from the effects of an unusual burst of luxury, and many other very old people, after living in the simplest possible way for many years, have succumbed at last to the effects of luxury partaken upon birthdays or festive occasions. The oldest inhabitant of Yarmouth, who died a few days are, is another illustration of the fact that the worst thing that can be done for aged people is to supply them with The old man, who was well into the nincties, had every promise of becoming a cen-tenarian, when he was unfortunately discovered in connection with the Jubile festivities, and, as the oldest inhabitant, was given the blace of honor at the local festivities, and was to be provided with the usual "comforts for his declining years" for he usual "comforts for his declining years" the future as he was in needy circumstances. He has responded promptly by dying,—(Westminster

GLEANINGS HERE AND THERE.

The Rev. Dr. Augusta J. Chapin is paster of the Universalist Church at Mount Vernon, N. Y. She has taken no vacation this summer. The parish vated to forego the morning sermon, but she re-mained at her post, taking up extra work in con-nection with the Sunday-school, the young people and other important parish interests.

Two California women have braved the fatigues of Mount Popocatapetl, They are Mrs. Ell Llewellyn and Mrs. Schumann-Warthman, members of the Sorosis Club of San Francisco, who are travelling in Mexico. They remained an hour on the moun-tain top and then made a swift descent and re-turned to Mexico City, where they received many congratulations for their pluck.

Mrs. S. G. Millikes, of Augusta, Me., who was elected a director at a recent meeting of the stock-holders of the Bangor, Orono and Oldtown Railroad Company, is the first woman elected to such a place in that State.

hitter fight, to open the Chicago College of Physicians and Surgeons to women. It appears that this gain to women is the result of the determined effort of Miss Hannah L. Hukill to obtain admission.

Mrs. Emma Colman Hamilton is the owner large coal and wood yard in Dunkirk, N. Y. also sells drain pipe, fire brick, tiles, cement, etc. Sile has a trusty man in her office, but oversees her books and the business generally herself.

WOMEN ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW. Miss Ida Estelle Hall, of Somerville, Mass., who was graduated from the Law School of Boston University this summer, was recently admitted to the Suffock County har. She has taken the oath in the Supreme Court, and is now vested with full powers of an attorney-at-law

Mrs. Carrie Rapp. of Rockford, Ill., is the second Rockford woman to pass a successful examination at Ottawa and be admitted as a member of the Winnebago County bar.

Mrs. Catharine Waugh McCulloch, now of Chicago, enjoys the distinction of having been the first woman to practise law there.

Miss Elizabeth Ryan, of San Francisco, practises wholly in the probate courts. She is the only woman in California who has ever been appointed an appraiser of an estate. Miss Edith R. Cleveland is a practising attorney in Vallejo, and Miss Clara M. Cothran in San Jose.

Miss Martha L. Roberts, of Salem, Mass., has seen admitted to the Essex County bar.

Miss Elsa Rechilssohn, the first woman in Sweden to take the degree of Doctor of Laws, and who received special permission from King Oscar to plead at the Upsala University, has been appointed professor of civil law at that university. —(The Woman's Tribune.

THINGS WORTH KNOWING.

HOW TO CLEAN A MACKINTOSH. Dip the garment in cold soft water, then with scrubbing brush and yellow soap proceed to scrub it all over, having spread it flat on a table. When It all over, inving spread it not on a table. When the dirt is removed dip the cloak in repeated waters to get rid of the suds, but do not wring it. Hang up in the air or in an airy room to dry, but do not put it near the fire. Paint or grease spots must be removed by "scouring drops" or spirits of tarpentine, but common soap will perform the rest. The dirtlest parts will require most scrubbing. In cleaning a mackintosh, always avoid hot water.

TO DRY WET SHOES. First wipe off gently with a soft cloth all surface water and mud; then, while still wet, rub well with of flannel. Set them aside until partially dry, when a second treatment with oil is advisable. They may then be deposited in a conveniently warm place, where they will dry gradually and thoroughly. Before applying blacking or kid dressing, give them a final rubbing with the flannel, still slightly damped with paraffin, and your boots will be soft and flexible as new kid, and be very little affected by the bath in the rain. paraffin oil, using for the purpose the furred side

CARE FOR HAIRBRUSHES Proper attention must be paid to the brushes one uses if one values her hair. To begin with, brushes should be kept spotlessly clean. Have them made of moderately stiff bristles, not too long, and put in singly—that is, not close together. Closely set long bristles are very liable to assist in spolling the hair. They are apt to split at the ends and catch the hair as it passes through them and break it off. Watch the brushes closely, and when a split bristle is found it should be removed at once.

WOMEN AND SCHOOLS.

There are 215 women serving on school commit-

Dr. Katharine Berry Richardson now occupies the chair of Visceral and Histological Anatomy in the Medical College of Kansas City, Mo.; and the Board of Regents of the University of Michigan has modified the laws of that institution so as to allow women to be professors. A movement is on foot in Detroit to endow a woman's professor-ship, nearly half of the $0,000 necessary being already subscribed, $10,000 by a wealthy enthusiast for the rights of her sex.

A. SIMONSON. 933 Broadway, 21st and 22d Sts.

HUMAN HAIR

able, and assuredly nothing to equal same! The reputation of my house as to the high grade of HAIR GOODS assures my patrons that appertaining to the line of HUMAN HAIR GOODS cannot be equalled elsewhere as to variety, superior quality and low prices.

ANYTHING AND EVERYTHING

Anticipating an early inspection of my stock, I

983 BROADWAY. 21ST AND 22D STE

assortment of imported cloths and exclusive models at popular prices. Costume to order, silk-lined throughout, fit guaranteed .

HOME FOR GIRL CRIPPLES.

We have the most attractive store, the largest

NEW BUILDING TO AID THE WORK OF SISTERS OF THE ANNUNCIATION.

A DELIGHTFUL OLD MANSION ON WASHINGTO HEIGHTS WILL BE READY FOR OCCUPANCY

IN OCTOBER-AIMS OF THE

The new building of the home established by the Sisters of the Annunciation for crippled and in-curable children is at No. 518 West One-hundredand-fifty-second-st. It will be ready for occupancy by October 1. The patients were moved about two months ago from their old quarters, No. 73 West Ninety-fourth-st., to the summer home at Riverbank, Conn. There were eighteen inmates, and the old building was too small.

The Sisters give their entire time and attention to the care of their patients. Only girls are re-ceived, and these between the ages of four and fourteen. Most of them are sent from the hospitals after being pronounced incurable. At the home the best medical treatment is provided by a resident physician, Dr. W. S. McMurdy, and, when necessary, by the consulting orthopedic surgeon, Dr. T. Halstead Myers. A few cases come through the aid societies and through charitable persons. Most of the patients are children of the poor, but some of the most pitiful are those who have been deprived, for other reasons than poverty, of necessary care or protec-

The summer home is St. Elizabeth House, at Riverbank, seven miles from Stamford, Conn. This includes, besides an ideal summer cottage, some twenty-five acres of land, where every form of amusement possible for the little cripples is vided. Here they are taken by several of the Sisters the first of May, and remain until October.

A DELIGHTFUL OLD MANSION. The new house is well adapted for the purpose. It is an old-fashioned residence, with large rooms and verandas on three sides. It is divided into four roomy wards, an office, dining-room, playrooms, classrooms, where the children who are able to study are taught every morning, and a cosey little chapel. The entire house has been put in perfect order. There are polished floors and comfortable little wicker rocking-chairs in the playrooms. There is a large yard, which is to be laid out in flower gardens and playgrounds. PLENTY OF TOYS.

homecoming. "The children have many toys given them," said one of the Sisters. "Every each child receives a number of presents besides those that are sent from outside friends and different guilds. They are as happy a set of children as you would find anywhere, and they always improve when they come to us, even when they have been given up as hopeless by the hospitals. Occasionally one of our little incurables becomes entirely cured, which is, of course, an occasion of great rejoicing for us. But the greatest improvement is a moral one. Often they come from the most degraded surroundings, and a sick child has not the chance of outside influences that a healthy one enjoys in the schools and with other children. We have a few cases of children who have been hopelessly afflicted by blows from drunken parents. One cannot expect such children to have any idea of right or wrong, but they gradually learn, and become decile when with us.

There are nineteen children at present at St. Elizabeth House, and the new home will accommodate many more—just how many will not be known until the wards have been arranged.

WOMEN OUTSUMBER MEN. According to the latest statistics, the women is Sweden outnumber the men by 148,669.

SUMMER DROWNINGS.

From The Philadelphia Inquirer.

The lists of deaths by drowning of persons what venture on or in the water has been an unusually long one this summer. Some of them have been the result of unskilled management of sallboats; the man who rooks the boat has also been in evidence, although, happily, not to any great extent; but the majority of fatalities have been to bathers and swimmers at season's resorts. Not a day has pessed since the opening of the season in which some of the latter cases have not been reported, and the only reason why the record has not been a more ghastly one is because of the courage that has been shown by some one in effecting a rescue. And yet, with all these warnings, persons are still to be found risking their lives in attempting some feat from the performance of which even the most practised and daring swimmer would shrink. What the mental character of such people can be it is hard to understand, and the object which prompts them is likely always to remain a mystery.

It would appear as if the configuration of the beach at many of the summer resorts along the Atlantic coast was being changed. There are deep guilles now where a few years ago, there was a level or gradually sloping surface. The building of jettles and huge from piers has also undoubtedly changed the one-time course of the incoming tides, and the undertow thus created is more powerful and dangerous than ever. This underrow ignorance and recklessness have been the chief factors in the season's fatalities. It has been suggested, too, that they are due in some cases to the fact that bathers, when they enter the water, do not first wet their head, and the suggestion is a reasonable one. To plungs the head and it is not long before a helplessness is produced that cannot be overcome.

There is no resort of any consequence along the coast where there are not safeguards in defence of human life, and if bathers were to exercise a little self-restraint the record of deaths by drowning would decrease. It is the human element of carl From The Philadelphia Inquirer.

LEAD BULLETS MADE AS HARD AS STEEL.

From The San Francisco Chrontele.

Charles W. Baies, a chemist, and Edward Jerry, a surveyor of this city, have discovered a secret solution by which they coat leaden bullets, rendering them superior to steel-cased bullets. The ordinary leaden bullets, when used in the Krag-Jorgensen rifle, have been found to be too soft, and the lead has clung to the barrel of the rifle until the barrel was finally clogged, and the steel cartridges which have succeeded the lead ones have eventually torn the barrel. These cartridges do neither.

Mesars. Butes and Jerry succeeded in procuring some of the smokeless powder used by the Government in the Krag-Jorgensen rifles and have made numerous experiments with their cartridges. At a distance of thirty yards they bored a hole through an axe blade and also through a fatiron. In the latter case the bullet lodged in a tree, entering a distance of six inches. They will now offer to sell the Government the bullets coated with the moret preparation.